

Linea & gunnercooke Collaboration

News Release

gunnercooke

Professional Services firm gunnercooke has partnered with business improvement and change specialists, Linea to support its management consultancy team.

Linea works in partnership with clients to resolve complex strategic, operational, financial and workforce challenges, utilising their knowledge and expertise to deliver rapid improvement and sustainable change. The team are experts in solving organisational problems and operate as advisors, coaches and interim leaders and partners to organisations across a range of sectors, supporting a wide range of organisations across the public and private sectors both in the UK and internationally.

Linea and Operating Partners in gunnercooke's operational excellence team will work cooperatively on new opportunities including restructuring and turnaround, business transformation and continuous improvement.

gunnercooke Operating Partners is the management consultancy arm of gunnercooke, a full-service commercial law firm. The team comprises leading experts across multiple industries including manufacturing, construction and retail, providing consultancy advice on strategic and operational issues. The team's clients include BAE Systems, Johnson Matthey and Rolls Royce.

Ian Turmeau, gunnercooke Operating Partner, commented: "We are delighted to be partnering with Linea on our upcoming projects. This will enable us to expand the calibre of our operations in industries including manufacturing. Working together will allow us to offer a 'super team' of experts and processes to help clients with strategic and operational issues."

David Axon Linea Senior Partner added: "This is an exciting joint venture for Linea to support gunnercooke Operating Partners to provide a broader range of services to a wider range of clients, across a wider diversity of industry sectors. We look forward to assisting gunnercooke and its client's across the UK and beyond."
